

4. Brand new life

There's a brand new life in me
The answer's 'yes', and it's gonna be me
It's a baby, a tiny baby,
Tiny fingers and tiny toes and tiny ears and tiny eyes and
I'm gonna be a....
I'm gonna be a mummy!

(Ah! Ah!)

I will love this child in me
Be the best that I can be
There's a brand new life in me
I'll be the best that I can be.

Time to eat well, time to sleep well, time to keep well, time to grow well!

Time for me to take part in the creation of new life
Join the countless women in the army giving birth
Time for me to take my place adding to the human race
Wow! Look at women! Aren't we great?

(Ah! Ah!)

Oh, I will love this child in me
Oh, be the best that I can be
Oh, there's a brand new life in me
Welcome to this brand new me
I accept this brand new me
