

5. Hello, little bird

Hello, little bird, are you building your nest?
Will you lay an egg? Will you raise a chick?
Then one day when it flies away
Your nest will be empty again.
(Spoken) Well done! A job well done!

I'm gonna build my nest, I'm gonna make it warm and cosy
I'm gonna paint this room, I'll get it ready for my baby.
I'm gonna lay my egg, feed my chick juicy food.
I'm gonna keep her safe, from the rain and the storm.

Just like you, I will keep her so warm.
Just like you, I will teach her to fly.
And just like you, she will spread her wings and fly away.
My nest will be empty again.
A job well done.

Rock-a-bye, baby, in the treetop.
When the wind blows the cradle will rock.
(Mmm, mmm.)
