

6. Night feed

In the dark, in the secret place.
Lost in you, just us two alone.
Were this a film, I'd just be sitting here, holding you, rocking you.
But it's beautiful down here – like a coral reef underwater – so rich and clear.
One minute I can't breathe, overwhelmed and so tired of responsibility,
Then I see you.

Beautiful, in our secret world.
Time stands still, in the dark.

This the most precious thing
I know I'll ever do.
In the dark, here with you, rocking you.
